

John Talmadge Hammond

February 4, 1965 - December 18, 2020

John Talmadge Hammond passed away Friday December 18, 2020 at Emory Hospital after a lengthy illness. Born on February 4, 1965 in Thomasville, Ga., he was the son of George Hammond and the late Wink Hammond. He owned many businesses over the years including Barbecue Barn, High Cotton Bar & Grill, Hammond's Country Kitchen and Southport Shoe and Luggage. He was an avid gun enthusiast and enjoyed playing billiards. He is survived by his father George Hammond of Thomasville, Ga; brother Cliff Hammond of Blakely, Ga; two nieces and one nephew. His burial will be at Blakely Cemetery at a later date.

Comments

“ I sang in the Thomasville Music & Drama Troupe, and John was one of my dearest friends. We used to go roller skating together & talk to each other for hours on end. He was such a sweet, wonderful person - just his Mom, Wink. She was also one of my favorite people. Loved to shop & visit with her in her shoppe as well. I will miss these souls so much. Heaven is now a much brighter place with these two souls to light it up.

Janis Knapp Pritchett - August 23, 2021 at 03:42 PM

“ John was My best friend and big brother. He always called me his Grace Ann and he was My John Boy. I will forever love and miss him

Grace Ann Prance - December 26, 2020 at 10:11 PM