

Kay Marie Faglie

February 4, 1948 - May 28, 2020

Kay Marie Faglie 72, passed away Thursday morning May 28th at her home of 18 years in Thomasville Georgia. Living previously in Mary Esther, FL, Kay was born February 4, 1948 in Jamestown, New York. She was the daughter of the late Gust and Betty Rundquist (Parsons), sister of the late Nancy Hamilton and the mother of the late Shawn C Faglie. Kay is survived by her husband of 51 years, Jerry C Faglie and her stepmother Betty Lawson. She also leaves behind her daughter-in-law Rebecca Faglie Breault, 5 granddaughters Melissa Quinton Abbott, Amanda Moore Faglie, Emily Faglie, Angelina Giordani (Breault) and Arlene Breault. 4 great-grandsons, Jameson Moore, Kamren Giordani, Kaylub Giordani, and Jaden Vasquez and one great-granddaughter Liliana Giordani. 2 grandsons in law, Ian Moore and Wesley Giordani. A niece Jennifer Bailey Hamilton, nephew Wess Bailey and great nephew Gabriel Hamilton Bailey. Her brother in law Bill E. Faglie, nephew Lance Faglie, niece Ashley Faglie and two great-nephews Hudson and Henry Faglie. Kay's nurturing spirit went beyond her family and friends, so much so that she entered into the nursing profession. After graduating in 1969 from St. Joseph Infirmary, Kay worked in various hospitals and doctors' offices both in and out of the United States. She loved taking care of people and did so for many years throughout Georgia and Florida. She then took that nurturing spirit across the world where she was a nurse for the United States Embassy in Riyadh, Saudi Arabia. She also worked at the Army hospital in Frankfurt, Germany. She retired in 2002 but always remained a nurse at heart, caring for family and friends alike. Kay had such an infectious smile and personality that she made friends wherever she went and always made everyone feel like they were her family. Her sudden passing has left many with a broken heart. We will never forget this amazing, compassionate, loving, and strong woman. We will carry the memory of her in our hearts forever and we will love and miss her always. A gathering in her memory and spreading of her ashes will be held at a later date at the family's property in Madison, Florida. We will update everyone soon. Our family would also like to thank Allen & Allen Funeral Home and Sunset Crematorium of Thomasville, GA for taking care of mom and for all their support.

“ Your sweet memory will stay in my heart forever. I will continue to cherish your cards and handwritten notes you sent me at just the most perfect times throughout many years. Mine to you go with you to Heaven now. Love you, my dear friend. Our prayers for each other I believe will continue, just you have relocated. I was blessed so by your smile, laughter, & hugs. We understood together when our bodies would not keep up with our minds. Thank you for caring about me. I sure cared about you. Peace, Love, Joy in Heaven multiplied a million fold how much you gave on earth. God hold you in the Hollow of His Hand for us. We will meet again. With Love,
Sharon Breen Willeford, SJI Class of 1969 & Friend Forever

“ Oh Kay, I am so happy we got to chat on the phone a few weeks ago. You have always been a great St Joe classmate. The last time I saw you was when we picked you up at your house to go to St George for one of our gatherings. I will remember all those good times. You are probably up there with Mandy, Margi, Tina, Margie and Cheryl having your own reunion. Get things ready for the rest of us. Rest in peace my friend. I Know you are pain free now.
Love your classmate Deanna

“ Mom, I still can't believe you are gone. This house is so empty without you. Everywhere I look I see you. I know that you are with your son Shawn now and are no longer in pain but like Shawn you have left a huge void in my heart and life that will never heal. I will never forget the day I met you and you hugged me so tight. From that day on you made me your daughter and loved me so completely that no one will ever be able to measure up or make me feel as safe and loved as you did. Mom, I promised Shawn I would look after you and dad and now I promise you that I will continue to be here for dad and your family. I will never be able to repay all of your love and kindness but I swear I will spend the rest of my life trying, and to be the best woman I can, the woman you saw in me. I will love and miss you forever. I love you. Love your daughter, Rebecca A. Faglie Breault
